

Collisions with the help of game engines

Pascal CARRIVAIN (ENS de Lyon)

I introduce a game-engine-based method to resolve excluded volume constraints in polymer simulations. Implementation details of the method are presented for collisions between two segments. I then discuss applications to more complex systems.